NO INTERFERENCE FROM FOREIGNERS

Provisional President Will Brook No Outside Hand In Mexican Affairs

HUERTA DECLARES HE WILL NOT RESIGN

His Attitude Becclouds the Situation—Washington Opposed to Huerta Regime—Leading Mexicans Want Friendship of U. S. to Aid in Their Country's Financial Difficulties—Gen. Eduardo Hay to Appear Before Senate Committee

Washington, Aug. 3.—Official Washington read with great interest today the declaration of Aureliano Urrutia, the Mexican minister of interior, that Provisional President Huerta would not resign and, moreover, would brook no interference on the part of foreigners in his administration.

While no plan that the American government has had under serious consideration involved any direct interference in Mexican affairs, the admitted attitude of the administration here is one of unalterable opposition to the recognition of the Huerta regime.

Without the recognition of the United States, leading Mexicans have hitherto been unable to obtain credit to extricate themselves from their financial difficulties. On this account it had been believed here that pressure would be brought to bear to persuade Pres-

For Practice of War Tactics

20 DESTROYERS, FIVE SUBMARINES AND 11 BATTLESHIPS

ON LONG ISLAND SOUND

Forts on Fishers Island, Plum and Great Gull will be First Involved in Maneuvers.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 3.—Twenty destroyers and five submarines slipped out of Narragansett bay today to be in readiness to give the coast defense branch of the army a week of hard work along the Long Island Sound tomorrow. On board the eleven powerful battleships of the fleet, steam was up for an early departure tomorrow morning.

It is not to be a trial of strength between the army and navy, according to the department officials. The fleet is simply to lend its services for the benefit of the army's practice plan and no decision is to be announced as to the supremacy of either land or water forces.

Mine New London Harbor.
New London harbor, it is understood, is to be mined, and the coast defense service will be called upon to try to stop the quick dash of destroyers sent ahead to open up a lane for battleships. Mine laying, searchlight drills and regular battle practice will be included in to give the coast defense some practice under actual war conditions.

Strengthened Long Island Defenses.
Rear Admiral Charles F. Badger, commanding the Atlantic fleet, has laid out a plan of action to fit in with the purposes of the army. Coast commanders from Delaware river to Maine have received their instructions from Major General Barry at the headquarters of the Eastern department of the army at Governors Island, N. Y.; and for the past two weeks the defenses along Long Island Sound have been strengthened by the attachment of more troops from other posts along the coast.

Atlantic Fleet the Enemy.
Fully manned as in war time with 22 companies of coast artillerymen, the Atlantic fleet, under the command of Col. J. V. White, whose headquarters are at Fort Totten, N. Y., will be the first to meet the enemy in the zone of the exercises, under the immediate command of Lieutenant Colonel R. P. Davis.

British Naval Base in the Bermudas.
Report of New Plan Reaches the State Department.

Washington, Aug. 3.—Keen interest has been aroused in official circles here by a report reaching the State department that Great Britain is contemplating establishing a great naval base in the Bermuda Islands. It is said that the British government has made inquiries concerning the plans of the United States for the protection of the Panama canal route, and that the British government has indicated an intention to safeguard British shipping through the isthmus as is done in the Mediterranean.

Officials realize that the problem raised is a tremendous one, involving the very life of the Panama canal, doctrine and marking perhaps a complete revolution in foreign naval policy in the western hemisphere.
